Service-Learning Student Ambassador Scheme 2010-2011

Would you like to enlarge your networking? Are you interested in Service-Learning?

The Office of Service-Learning is pleased to announce the Student Ambassador Scheme, a hostel-based outreach program! We are looking for enthusiastic, outgoing, and responsible students who can help increase the channel of connection between OSL and Lingnan students, promote OSL programs and create a culture of Service-Learning in the hostels. Student Ambassadors will gain benefits such as planning, organizing and marketing experience, first priority in OSL jobs and programs, and a certificate upon successful completion of the program.

Student Ambassador Scheme will last for a full-year of 2010-2011. Participation in the program will take about 20-30 hours over the whole year, including training, planning and organizing activities.

Please visit the OSL website (www.ln.edu.hk/osl) or email nansleung@ln.edu.hk for a copy of the application. The application due date is Tuesday, 21 September. Interviews will be held during 4-7 October and results will be announced at the 8 October. If you have any questions about the Student Ambassador program, feel free to contact Nans at nansleung@ln.edu.hk or 2616 8078.
