

NEW HORIZONS IN EDUCATION

SPECIAL ISSUE ON SERVICE-LEARNING

JOURNAL OF EDUCATION, HONG KONG TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION
OFFICE OF SERVICE-LEARNING, LINGNAN UNIVERSITY

Deadline for Paper Submission: 1st May, 2009

Notes for Contributors:

New Horizons in Education welcomes authors to send in papers and have them reviewed throughout the year. New Horizons will be published three times per year. Teachers, school administrators, counselors, educators and researchers are invited to submit papers about discoveries and new insights from their systematic inquiries and professional practices. Contributions if accepted (and revised) in time will be published in the next issue of that year.

Please send papers to: The Editor, New Horizons (Special Issue 2009), Office of Service-Learning, GE103, B.Y. Lam Building, Lingnan University, Hong Kong.

1. Paper submitted should be by e-mail attachment or on a virus-free CD in the MS-Word format, accompanied by one hard copy showing printing styles such as boldface, italics and tables (if any). The CD should be labeled with the name of author and the kind of software used.
2. The author's name, position, affiliation, address, E-mail address, contact number(s) of telephone, and Fax, should be given in both English and Chinese. Please also enclose 3 self-addressed envelopes with enough stamps.
3. Paper should be around 5000 words in length and should include an abstract (no more than 300 words), keywords (3 or less). A Chinese version of the abstract and keywords together with a Chinese title should also be included. For empirical research papers, the abstract should describe the background, goals, research method and results in the abstract. For conceptual papers, the abstract should describe the background, discussion focus and suggestions.
4. Paper submitted should be proofread and well written. Paper not up to Standard English will be edited by professional English writer at author's own cost.
5. Submissions should be presented in APA style. Please consult The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association.
6. All tables and illustrations should be camera-ready.
7. Papers previously published or under consideration for publication elsewhere will not be accepted.
8. All submissions will be double blind reviewed. Authors should include not more than two of their own publications in the references during the initial reviewing stage to ensure the anonymous status.
9. After the review, authors will be contacted for revision. They should send in the revised manuscript along with a table showing how the revision has responded to the reviewers' suggestions. The editors reserve the right for further refinement.
10. The Journal reserves the copyright of all published papers.
11. The views expressed in the publication are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the position of the Journal.
