

BA (Hons) in Translation

About the Programme

The BA (Hons) in Translation offered by the Department of Translation, provides students with a quality bilingual and cross-cultural education. In this programme, equal emphasis is placed on the academic and practical study of translation, to which students are introduced through wide range of courses: different genres of specialized translation, interpreting, linguistics, and translation theory, criticism, and history.

The programme also offers students opportunities to apply their learning in real-world contexts, such as internships, exchange programmes, and projects. Graduates of the programme will be able to pursue careers in various fields that require multilingual and multicultural competence, such as translation, interpreting, administration, marketing, journalism, public relations, education, and research.
