

Department of Psychology Entrance Scholarship

Overview

The Entrance Scholarship is established to recognise and support exceptional incoming local students who demonstrate academic excellence and a commitment to their studies. This scholarship aims to facilitate the transition of HKDSE, Associate Degree, and Higher Diploma graduates to degree-level education.

Eligibility Criteria

To be considered for the Entrance Scholarship, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Be an incoming undergraduate local student majoring in Psychology, Psychology with Counselling Psychology Concentration (Senior Year Entry) or Business Psychology (Senior Year Entry) at the Department of Psychology, Lingnan University.
- Have achieved outstanding academic results in HKDSE, Associate Degree, or Higher Diploma programmes.

Important Notes:

- The scholarship amount will vary based on the admittees' academic performance, such as their DSE results or cGPA.
- Applicants must submit an original or certified true copy of their HKDSE certificate or official transcript from their sub-degree programme, along with proof of graduation status, by the end of the first semester of their first-year study at Lingnan.
- Awardees will be disqualified from receiving the entrance scholarship and must return the full amount to the Department of Psychology under any of the following circumstances:
 - Withdrawal from the programme
 - Suspension of studies
 - Transfer to a different academic department
 - Submission of false certificates or transcripts.
- The number of awards will be determined every year based on the availability of resources and the number of eligible students.
