

The Belt and Road Scholarship

Established by the Government of the HKSAR, the Belt and Road Scholarship covers full-tuition fees for outstanding students from the Belt and Road countries to pursue full-time, publicly-funded university studies in Hong Kong. Eligible applicants for first-year undergraduate programmes will automatically be considered on merit basis for nomination to the Education Bureau; no separate application is required.

For details of the Scholarship, please click here.