

Changing Education: Leadership, Innovation and Development in a Globalizing Asia Pacific

Peter D. Hershock, Mark Mason and John N. Hawkins, Editors

Table of Contents

Introduction: Peter D. Hershock, Mark Mason & John N. Hawkins, Challenges in the Leadership of Innovation and Development in Education in a Globalizing Asia Pacific

Part One: The Context and Imperatives for Paradigmatic Change in Education

Chapter 1: Deane E. Neubauer, Globalization and Education: Characteristics, Dynamics, Implications

Chapter 2: Fazal Rizvi, Rethinking Educational Aims in an Era of Globalization

Chapter 3: Mark Mason, Multiculturalism, Shared Values, and an Ethical Response to Globalization

Chapter 4: Peter D. Hershock, Education and Alleviating Poverty: Educating for Equity and Diversity

Part Two: Outcomes and Opportunities for Change: Education in a Renewing Asia

Chapter 5: John N. Hawkins, The Intractable Dominant Educational Paradigm

Chapter 6: Ma Wan-hua, Globalization and Paradigm Change in Higher Education: The Experience of China

Chapter 7: Jason Tan, Pulling Together amid Globalization: National Education in Singapore Schools

Chapter 8: Joseph P. Farrell, Education in the Years to Come: What We Can Learn from Alternative Education

Part Three: Leadership in Changing the Way Education Changes

Chapter 9: Peter D. Hershock, Leadership in the Context of Complex Global Interdependence: Emerging Realities for Educational Innovation

Chapter 10: Victor Ordonez, The Changing Role of Leadership (or A Changing Leadership for a Changing World)

Chapter 11: Wang Hongyu, Interconnections Within and Without: The Double Duty of Creative Educational Leadership

Chapter 12: Vrinda Dalmiya, Unraveling Leadership: 'Relationahl Humility' and the Search for Ignorance

Peter D. Hershock, Mark Mason & John N. Hawkins, Conclusion: Changing Education