YOUNG Wing Yan, Millie (BSS – Psychology, Year 4)

This programme is actually a great opportunity for us to talk with other professionals and familiar with different jobs. I feel quite enthusiastic to contact mentor and ask questions at the beginning at the programme as I can have some contacts with the mentor who is working in the social services field, which is quite interested to me. However, when the busy period is coming, it is common that we loss the contact to each other as we had to deal with lots of stuff, and after the period, it became even more difficult for us to contact with each other. Therefore, it would be better to have a consistent contact with mentors even it is busy. However, the regular meeting with LEMP participants and staffs actually give us opportunities and updates about different job fields, which is great to our job searching. However, the fields that related to psychology or social services are somewhat limited.

LI Yingqiu, Doris (BBA - Accounting, Year 4)

I think it is a useful and memorable experience. Firstly, my mentor shared with me some job-hunting skills and made comments on my CV. Then, before I attended the interview conducted by EY, I asked for some advice from him to help me better prepare. Lastly, I met with my mentor to seek some advice regarding future job hunting and development in the accounting industry.

LAI Long Yin, Eugene (BA - Translation, Year 4)

To be honest, I think my mentor has taken good care of me. He is willing to take the advantage of his connection to share the industry insight with me. However, I believe that the career team can invite other senior management to become the mentor, not only Lingnan graduate, but any person who is willing to share with the new generation.

CHAN Wai Ming , Billy (BBA - Marketing, Year 3)

Throughout the entire LEMP, I am honoured to have connected my current mentor, Leo. He is a very friendly person and always willing to share his experience and his view on the job market with us, which has widely broaden my horizon from his sharing. On the other hand, he has a wide network as well, which he was able to arrange meeting with some alumni for us based on the industries we want to know more about. From their sharing, I gained a deeper insight in the industry I am keen in and learnt more on how to equip myself better if I want to pursue a career in that field in the future.
