

Ma Yiu Tim, Jimmy, SBS, JP

Dr. Ma, formerly Legal Adviser to the Legislative Council Secretariat (1996 to 2015), is currently in private practice as a barrister at the Hong Kong Bar. In addition to that, he is adjunct professor at The City University of Hong Kong, and part-time lecturer at HKU SPACE.

Dr. Ma obtained academic degrees of LL.B. and P.C.LL. from University of Hong Kong, LL.M. from University College London, and LL.B. and LL.D. from Peking University. Professionally, he is a barrister in Hong Kong, Fellow of Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators, and Accredited General Mediator on the Panel of Mediators of the Hong Kong Mediation Accreditation Association Limited, and Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. He is listed as Arbitrator on the respective Panels of Arbitrators of the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, Shenzhen Court of International Arbitration and Hainan Court of International Arbitration.

Dr. Ma's public service includes serving as member of both the Council and Court of Lingnan University, a director of the Lingnan Education Organization Limited, and Rotarian of Rotary International District 3450 (in Hong Kong). He is a Council Member of the Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators, and a Council Member of the China Law Society. He became a member of the Election Committee of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region in September 2021.

Mr. Ma was appointed Justice of the Peace in 1998, and was awarded the Silver Bauhinia Star in 2015.

(July 2022)