Words from Professional

Mr CHUNG Koon Chung, Benny
Deputy Chief Operating Officer
Lifestyle International Holdings Limited
Chairman, MSc in Finance
Programme Advisory Board

The MSc in Finance Programme offers students with a comprehensive range of finance-related topics, covering important and fundamental financial concepts and skills from both theoretical and practical aspects, which will well prepare the students who have interests in getting into the fast changing and highly competitive finance industry. Courses such as corporate finance, financial markets and investment analysis, investment and wealth management, venture capital and private equity enable students to learn and build up required understanding and knowledge relevant to different professions in the finance industry. The programme also includes courses covering FinTech, ESG and risk management which have been hot topics in the finance industry in recent years and these areas will further gain their importance in the overall development of the finance industry. Students of the MSc in Finance programme will also be offered with the opportunity to attend seminars and/or small group discussions with practitioners in the finance industry in which they would be able to gain additional industry insights as well as better understand the daily working life of different professions in the finance industry.

Words from our Alumni

The faculty were professional and dedicated, helping me solidify my finance fundamentals, understand Hong Kong's regulatory framework and practical market logic, and learn industry-relevant knowledge. I also met like-minded classmates and broadened my horizons. The most memorable during the academic year was winning first place in the simulated investment competition hold by Valuable Capital, which laid a strong foundation for my future career in finance.

Mr ZHANG Yanbo
MFin 2026 Graduate
Operation Officer at Valuable Capital Ltd.

The MSc in Finance Programme at Lingnan University was an incredibly rewarding experience. It provided a solid foundation in both theoretical and practical aspects of finance, allowing me to develop critical analytical skills and a deep understanding of global financial markets. The professors are knowledgeable and always willing to provide guidance, fostering a supportive learning environment. The curriculum's rigorous nature challenged me to think strategically and apply what I learned to real-world scenarios. Overall, my time at Lingnan has equipped me with the skills and confidence to pursue a career in finance, and I am grateful for the opportunities and connections I made throughout this journey.

Ms ZHANG Ran
MFin 2024 Graduate
Assistant Vice President at Central China International Financial Holdings Co.

Lingnan University has given me a new study and learning experience. I had many chances to communicate with professors from different backgrounds around the world, which could further strengthen our communication skills. Besides, the programme office often organized guest lectures and seminars for us to learn more comprehensive knowledge about Finance, it helped us got more understanding towards the industry. I think Lingnan University has given us a wide range of resources to fully equip ourselves into succeed!
