Words of Appreciation

“The Foundation values highly the unique RIM programme offered by Lingnan University. I am truly confident that Lingnan is capable of nurturing bright, young talent for the insurance industry under the liberal arts context with an emphasis on students’ whole-person development.”

Mr Mason Wu, Director of the AR Charitable Foundation Limited

“With the support of the AR Charitable Foundation and all the professional bodies of the insurance industry, I have full confidence that Lingnan will succeed in bringing the academic excellence of the RIM programme to new heights.”

President Leonard K Cheng, Lingnan University

“I am very honoured and thankful to be selected as one of the recipients of the AR Charitable Foundation Scholarship this year. The scholarship not only alleviates my financial burden but also allows me to concentrate more on my undergraduate study. I look forward to my MSc in Insurance and Risk Management in London, which will be fully funded by the AR Scholarship Scheme.”

Ms Cheryl Lee, the awardee of AR postgraduate scholarship at 2014 to study for MSc in Insurance and Risk Management at CASS Business School, City University London (CASS).

Outstanding Secondary Students who aspire to work in the insurance field are strongly encouraged to enrol in our RIM programme. If a student manages to keep up excellent academic performance from his/her second to fourth year of study and enrols in a recognized graduate degree programme in insurance, he/she may receive up to a total amount of HK$ 610,000 in scholarship.

Lingnan University is the only liberal arts university in the territory, offering undergraduate, research and taught postgraduate programmes in three broad academic disciplines: arts, business, and social sciences. We are committed to providing students with international exposure and whole-person development, particularly through study and cultural exchange, as well as out-of-class learning experience. True to its identity as a liberal arts institution, LU is characterised by an interdisciplinary curriculum, a small student population, and a close faculty-student relationship. LU has the highest residential rate and outbound student exchange participation ratio among all higher education institutions in Hong Kong.
