

HKIBS Knowledge Transfer (KT) Exploration (KTE) Fund

A. Objectives

KT Exploration (KTE) Fund, launched by HKIBS, provides staff members of the Faculty of Business with seed money to conduct case studies/ knowledge transfer projects for companies and organisations with the purpose of facilitating student learning.

B. Eligibility

1. All faculty members who (1) teach UG or TPG courses with students participating in case studies or knowledge transfer projects for companies and organisations or (2) launch knowledge transfer projects with student involvement are eligible to apply.
2. The scope of funding includes, but is not limited to:
 - i. Transportation
 - ii. Seminar/ Poster presentation
 - iii. Mailing/ Post
 - iv. Stationary Purchase
 - v. Photocopy / Printing
 - vi. Souvenir / Prize
 - vii. Others (to be reviewed case by case)
3. Service learning projects are not eligible for application
4. Applications are accepted all year round.

C. Funding Support and Obligations

Each successful candidate will receive a maximum funding support of HK$2,000 by reimbursement during the project period. Awardees should follow the University's regulations on the use of funds.

D. Application Procedure

1. Application must be submitted to HKIBS by the application deadline.
2. All business-related topics aiming at transferring knowledge to communities are welcome. Proposals concerning the cultivation of students' knowledge of innovation and entrepreneurship are also acceptable.