

Research Seminar by Prof. Cynthia LEE on 7 November 2023

"We were honored to host Prof. Cynthia LEE from Northeastern University, US Boston, for an insightful seminar on 'Feeling Possessive, Performing Well? Effects of Job-Based Psychological Ownership on Territoriality, Information Exchange, and Job Performance' on November 7th, 2023.

Prof. Lee's expertise provided a fresh perspective on psychological ownership in the workplace. Her thought-provoking seminar sparked meaningful discussions and opened new avenues for exploration.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Prof. Cynthia LEE for sharing her invaluable knowledge with us. It was truly an honor to have such a distinguished guest visit our department.
