

MKT2242 Digital Innovation

The digital innovation is ushering in an age of disruption across industries, creating fundamental changes in the ways in which organisations operate.

The course includes lectures, videos, guest talks, live projects, and case studies where you will explore the world of disruption, from what it is to how to harness new strategies of digital revolution to our advantage.

