Academic calendar

Nomination period	Autumn / semester 1 & full academic year	Spring / semester 2
	from 1 April to 31 May	from 1 September to 31 October
	Clinical rotation nomination period for both semester 1 & 2 from 30 January to 20 February Deadline for Master's Degree in Arts and Cultural Management for any length of stay is 31 May
Nomination requirements	Partner universities must select and officially nominate students for academic exchange who have passed all first-year subjects and who are able and willing to: — Abide by UIC Barcelona's academic calendar, rules & regulations — Comply with applicable visa/immigration policies & local laws — Ensure complete medical coverage for their entire stay at UIC Barcelona — Have a sufficient level of the teaching language of the courses they have chosen — Health Sciences students should provide immunisation records Visiting/free-mover students don't have to be nominated, but should fulfill the requirements mentioned above.
Nomination procedures	The partner institution should send the nomination(s) through this link , except for the Clinical Rotation nomination, which must be sent by email to exchange.scu@uic.es .
Application deadlines	Autumn / semester 1 & full academic year	Spring / semester 2
	15 June	15 November
	Students applying for Clinical Rotations must first complete a specific form to select their placements by 31 March , before submitting their full application by 15 May
Language requirements	B2 in Spanish and/or English. The student needs to provide a certificate for the language/s they are going to study in. Some health sciences degrees accept a B1. Please see the faculty-specific fact sheet. Native speakers do not need to provide a certificate. The OLS language test is not accepted as proof of students' language level.
Acceptance Letter	Students will receive an acceptance letter once they have completed their application and sent in the required documents. The letter will be sent by email , and the original can be sent to the student's university by post when requested. This letter is generated especially for students needing to apply for a student visa or accommodation. It does not guarantee the final acceptance of the student's study plan / Learning Agreement. Please note that for medical and nursing internships, the letter of acceptance will only be issued once the internship placements have been confirmed.

Academic information

Available courses for exchange students	Students will be informed of course timetables and the academic calendar during June–July for the first semester, and between November and December for the second semester.
Teaching language of individual subjects	Courses in Spanish and English, with some courses in Catalan. Please check the fact sheet / faculty guide the students will receive upon nomination. The sending institution, following the agreement with our institution, is responsible for providing support to its nominated candidates so that they can have the recommended language skills at the start of the study or teaching period.
Academic coordinators	The main contact for the Learning Agreement is the academic coordinator. The updated list of coordinators and their contact details will be sent to students by email after the nomination.
How to create the Learning Agreement	Students have to create their Learning Agreements online , in UIC Barcelona's internal Department of International Relations platform, and through Erasmus Without Paper. More information provided in the application guide.
Deadlines for submitting the Learning Agreement	Autumn / semester 1 & full academic year	Spring / semester 2
	30 June	30 November
	Deadline for clinical rotations/medical electives for both Semester 1 & 2 is 25 May
Deadlines for changes	Will be determined in the beginning of each semester. Approx. 2 weeks after the classes start.
Language courses	Our Department for Applied Linguistics offers Catalan, Spanish, English and French lessons through on-site, blended or online courses. These courses carry an enrolment fee for all students. Students in the Erasmus+ programme have access to reduced rates. The department also offers a wide selection of other languages through the Rosetta Stone platform. All these courses have credit recognition. uic.es/ifm multiling@uic.cat

Academic information

Study regulations	On attendance	Attendance to on-campus classes is obligatory. Students must present a justification in case of absence. Too many absences may result in failing the course.
	On exams	Examination dates cannot be changed unless a justification is presented to the faculty in advance. In some faculties, it may be possible to advance the semester 1 exam dates upon request.
	On extending stay	Students may extend their stay by making a formal request in advance to International Relations who will pass it on to the faculty in question for assessment. Students should take into account the possible visa extension process and requirements.
	Students should always check the faculty-specific fact sheet for more information and details.
Transcript of records	A transcript of records will be issued in February for semester 1 students and in late July for annual / semester 2 students. The exact dates may vary. We will send a signed PDF by email to the students and universities, and the original by post to the home university only when requested. Certificates for language courses at the Department for Applied Linguistics are sent separately.
Grading system	A+ Matrícula de honor	The best student(s) of the class may receive a “Matrícula de honor” / First-Class Honours. It will be stated as A+.
	9 – 10 Excelente	A Distinction
	7 – 8.9 Notable	B Merit
	5 – 6.9 Aprobado	C Pass
	0 – 4.9 Suspenso	F Fail
	NP No presentado	NP Not Presented

Practical information

Pre-arrival webinar	After the nomination deadline, we organise a pre-arrival webinar each semester for all nominated students to help them with all the documents required for the application to UIC Barcelona and provide them with practical information for their mobility. Students will receive an invitation by email after nomination.
Welcome activities	Each semester we organise a Welcome Session for new exchange students. Attendance is obligatory. Additionally we organise cultural activities for students to meet each other and get to know Barcelona.
Buddy Programme	Students can request a local buddy (UIC Barcelona student) who will accompany them during their first weeks at UIC Barcelona.
	Contact details	buddyprogramme@uic.es
Visa	UIC Barcelona can provide assistance for securing visas for incoming and outgoing students/staff if necessary.
