Practical Information

Visa Requirements

A student visa must be issued at the Israeli consulate of the relevant country before your flight is booked. Please bear in mind that visa requests and appointments should be planned well in advance to avoid any complications such as starting the semester late.

Please click here or contact visa.intl@biu.ac.il for further information.

Health Insurance

Exchange students are required to have full travel and health insurance covering their stay in Israel, including COVID-19 coverage.

Please click here or contact visa.intl@biu.ac.il for further information.

Arriving to Israel

Please be aware that the weekend in Israel takes place on Friday and Saturday. During that time the university offices will be closed.

Accommodation

The International School assists by renting several dorm rooms for international students, which can be booked on a first-come, first-served basis. If you can't find accommodation in our dorms, you will be able to rent an apartment alone or with friends in the surrounding areas. However, please be aware that monthly rentals throughout the Tel Aviv Metropolitan Area are high, so you will need to ensure you have the finances to cover these costs.

Please click here or contact dorms.intl@biu.ac.il for further information.

Dormitories on campus: PARK 100 dorms
Address: 512 Jabotinsky Street, Givat Shmuel

Please note that the official website for our dorms displays information for Bar-Ilan students only, which does not apply to exchange students. The International School is only responsible for accommodation booked through this email address: dorms.intl@biu.ac.il.

Students are required to arrange their own accommodation. Finding housing on and around the university campus can be difficult, so it is highly recommended that you arrange accommodation well in advance.

Shops situated in the PARK 100 dorms: Bakery, supermarket, electronic store, stationary store, store for sweets as well as a pizza and falafel place. An ATM machine is located next to the shops.

Transportation on campus

Bar-Ilan University provides a shuttle service within the campus (free of charge) including a special vehicle accessible to people with disabilities. Shuttle frequency is between 5-7 minutes.

Public Transport in Israel

Busses and trains are only accessible using a Rav Kav card.

This card can be charged with cash electronically and used on all public transport. Many bus and train stations also have charging stations, where the card can be filled using a credit card.

The Rav Kav card can be purchased in any Rav Kav service station. You can also order it online and it will be delivered to your address in Israel.

Please visit the official Rav Kav website for further information.

The Rav Kav app is available in the Google Play.

The Rav Kav app is available in the App store.

Student Activities and Well-being

BIU's International School's Student Services Department ensures that there is always a vibrant social community on campus and consistently organizes social activities and other events for all the international students.
