Office Hours: Monday 3:30–5:30 PM; Tuesday 2:00–4:00 PM; or by appointment
Lecture: Monday 1:30 – 3:30 PM (LKK G02)
Tutorial Session: Tuesday 10:30–11:30 AM (LKK G04)

Course Overview:
This course examines the domestic politics, economic development, social changes and international relations of contemporary Japan. How did Japan transform into a modern state? Why did the Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) dominate Japanese politics during the postwar era? What were the driving forces of Japan’s “miraculous” economic growth after the World War II? Why did Japan’s economy swing from boom to bust in the 1980s-90s? What were the political and economic consequences of the bubble bust? What are the key challenges confronting Japan’s foreign policies? This course seeks to offer a comprehensive analysis of the above questions and help students gain a deep understanding of Japan.

Teaching Methods:
This course consists of lectures, classroom discussions, tutorials, presentations, and research and writing.

Aims:
- Describe and analyze the most significant features of the contemporary Japanese political, economic and social structure.
- Discuss a number of critical issues which are currently being debated in Japan.

Learning Outcomes:
By the end of the course, the aim is that students will have improved the ability to:
- Apply critical thinking and analytical writing skills to the study of contemporary political and economic events related to Japan.
- Discuss intelligently the political, economic and social developments in Japan.
- Use theories of comparative politics and political economy to analyze important phenomena and events in a comparative manner.
Assessment of Learning Outcomes:

- Attendance and Participation (10%): Students are expected to complete all required readings prior to each lecture and to attend all lectures and tutorial sessions.

- Tutorial Presentation (10%): Each student will sign up for one of “tutorial sessions” during the course. One or two students will individually make a short presentation and lead discussion in each week’s tutorial session.

- Short Paper (30%): In a team of 2 (or 3) students, you will write a 10-page (or 15-page) paper to identify and analyze a policy problem in Japan. Following the analysis, you should offer recommendations on how the policy can be improved. Further details of expectations will be given during the course. This assignment will be due on Friday, December 1 at noon.

- Final Exam (50%): The final will cover all the course material. The format is a combination of short answer questions (IDs) and longer essay questions.

Prerequisites:

No prior knowledge of Japan is required. Prior coursework in political science and/or economics is advised.

Course Materials:

There are no required books for this course. However, we will read four chapters of the following book. The electronic version of this book can be accessed through our university library.

Important Notes:

1. Students are expected to spend a total of 9 hours (i.e. 3 hours of class contact and 6 hours of personal study) per week to achieve the course learning outcomes.

2. Students shall be aware of the University regulations about dishonest practice in course work, tests and examinations, and the possible consequences as stipulated in the Regulations Governing University Examinations. In particular, plagiarism, being a kind of dishonest practice, is “the presentation of another person’s work without proper acknowledgement of the source, including exact phrases, or summarised ideas, or even footnotes/citations, whether protected by copyright or not, as the student’s own work.” Students are required to strictly follow university regulations governing academic integrity and honesty.

3. Students are required to submit writing assignment(s) using Turnitin.

4. To enhance students’ understanding of plagiarism, a mini-course “Online Tutorial on Plagiarism Awareness” is available on https://pla.ln.edu.hk/.
