COURSE AIMS

This course provides students with an overview of the management of organization and human resources in civil service system, with reference to the relevant issues and development in Hong Kong. It aims to benefit students who are planning to pursue their career in the government or other public sectors after graduation. It is going to provide students with a theoretical framework and critical analysis of various approaches and techniques of civil service system and management.

LEARNING OUTCOMES (LOs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Identify the underlying values in managing civil service system and critically discuss the strengths and weaknesses of alternative approaches in civil service management.

2. Identify the key concepts, debates, strategies and trends in contemporary civil service management.

3. Analyses the civil service system of the Hong Kong SAR, including statutory and administrative framework, key actors, strategies and practices; and the societal and political impacts on civil service management structures.

4. Examine the institutions, management processes, and major issues confronting the civil service system; and

5. Examine the international trends in civil service reforms and their implications.
TEACHING METHOD
Lectures are combined with tutorials. Lectures focus on the introduction and explanation of key concepts, theoretical framework and critical analysis of various human resources and financial management practices in the public sector context, with illustrations by referring to current issues and local examples whenever appropriate. Tutorial sessions provide students with the opportunity to apply the concepts and theories acquired in lectures to real-life current issues.

MEASUREMENT OF LEARNING OUTCOMES
Assessment of students’ performance will be based on the following four criteria:

1. Class participation (10%) (measures LOs 1-5)
   Students will be graded according to their degree of class participation and other relevant contributions to the class discussion.

2. Class presentation (15%) (measures LOs 1-4)
   The whole class is divided into presentation teams (each team comprising around 3 students) and each team is required to give a 40-minute oral presentation on a government department/bureau from the perspective of street-level bureaucracy, followed by a question and answer session and further discussion in the class.

3. Group written report (15%) (measures Los 1-4)
   Following the oral presentation, the presentation team submits a group written report on the presentation topic. The paper should be not less than 3000 words in length (excluding footnotes, bibliographies and appendices) and typed in one-and-a half line spacing. It should be properly referenced according to established academic rules and plagiarism is strictly prohibited. A table setting out the division of work amongst the presentation team should also be attached at the end of the paper for individual assessment. Students should submit their report two weeks after the group presentation.

4. Final Examination (60%) (measures LOs 1-5)
This will assess students’ understanding of the basic concepts, case studies, and debates encountered in this course.

IMPORTANT NOTES

1. Students are expected to spend a total of 9 hours (i.e. 3 hours of class contact and 6 hours of personal study) per week to achieve the course learning outcomes.

2. Students shall be aware of the University regulations about dishonest practice in course work, tests and examinations, and the possible consequences as stipulated in the Regulations Governing University Examinations. In particular, plagiarism, being a kind of dishonest practice, is “the presentation of another person’s work without proper acknowledgement of the source, including exact phrases, or summarised ideas, or even footnotes/citations, whether protected by copyright or not, as the student’s own work”. Students are required to strictly follow university regulations governing academic integrity and honesty.

3. Students are required to submit writing assignment(s) using Turnitin.

4. To enhance students’ understanding of plagiarism, a mini-course “Online Tutorial on Plagiarism Awareness” is available on https://pla.ln.edu.hk/.
