Brief Course Description:

Training students for interpreting between Putonghua and English, this course is designed to cater to the potential needs in a workplace for oral communication and mediation between the two languages. The content covered ranges from everyday encounters to business negotiations in commercial settings.

Language of instruction: English / Putonghua

Aims:

This course aims to enhance students' competence in sight translation, note-taking, and consecutive interpreting between English and Putonghua. It also focuses on the oral language skills required for interpreting, such as expressing oneself effectively and confidently in public, speaking with clarity, and summarizing other people's speeches.

Learning Outcomes (LOs):

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. recognise the general problems of interpreting between English and Putonghua;
2. summarise an English speech in Putonghua and give a gist English account of a Putonghua speech on various topics;
3. mediate as an interpreter using either English or Putonghua in interpreting events;
4. interpret with confidence and competence between Putonghua and English; and
5. apply typical politeness strategies in spoken Putonghua and English.

Indicative Content:

1. Introduction to verbal communication;
2. The art of public speaking;
3. Note-taking and memory training;
4. Consecutive interpreting between Putonghua and English; and
5. Sight translation between Putonghua and English.

Teaching Method:

Discussions and practice in a language laboratory

Measurement of Learning Outcomes:

Students' progress towards the learning outcomes will be measured by means of:

1. Interpreting quizzes (e.g., sight translation, consecutive interpreting, and a mock conference that students are given different scenarios to perform interpreting between Putonghua and English);

- Regular class exercises that require students to demonstrate their skills in short-term memory retention, note-taking of spoken texts and figures, oral presentation, and interpreting between English and Putonghua from the floor or at the booth;
- A final interpreting examination with two tasks (sight translation and consecutive interpreting) between English and Putonghua.

Important Notes:

- (1) Students are expected to spend a total of 9 hours (i.e. 3 hours of class contact and 6 hours of personal study) per week to achieve the course learning outcomes.
- (2) Students shall be aware of the University regulations about dishonest practice in course work, tests and examinations, and the possible consequences as stipulated in the Regulations Governing University Examinations. In particular, plagiarism, being a kind of dishonest practice, is "the presentation of another person's work without proper acknowledgement of the source, including exact phrases, or summarised ideas, or even footnotes/citations, whether protected by copyright or not, as the student's own work". Students are required to strictly follow university regulations governing academic integrity and honesty.
- (3) Students are required to submit writing assignment(s) using Turnitin.
- (4) To enhance students' understanding of plagiarism, a mini-course "Online Tutorial on Plagiarism Awareness" is available on <https://pla.ln.edu.hk/>
